

Reaffirms Stand

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M.—The Albuquerque Game Protective Association yesterday reaffirmed its stand asking the State Game and Fish Department to make available to the public a percentage of big game hunting permits in Colfax county's Vermejo Park ranch.

The group passed an identical resolution last year when the game department issued 250 permits to Ranch Owner W. G. Gourley.

Clipped By:

philcrater

Sat, Mar 15, 2014